Elk Ridge and Thunderbay to host 2000 Yoot Shoot

Elk Ridge 10th hole with pig shaped bunker

For the first time in Great Northern Yoot Shoot history, the event will be held outside of the Gladwin/West Branch area. For the 2000 event, Elk Ridge (www.elkridgegolf.com) in Atlanta, Mi. and Thunderbay Resort (www.thunderbaygolf.com) in Hillman, Mi. are the host sites. Thunderbay Resort with its “condo-like” golf villas will provide the lodging.

Rated one of the best courses by Golf Digest, Elk Ridge will provide a very challenging round on “moving day” of the Yoot Shoot. Yoots will experience dramatic elevation changes, thick hardwood and pine forest, running rivers & scenic ponds all while trying to position their team for a run at the cup

Thunderbay Resort will be the host Resort and for the first time allow Yoots to stay at the same location providing ample opportunity’s for verbal warfare & a centralized drinking establishment within walking distance of your accommodations. The Yoot Shoot cost of $190/ea., provides 2 rounds of golf, Fri/Sat. night lodging, and Yoot Dues.

Warm up Anyone?

Just a reminder that the Friday before the Yoot Shoot (October 6) will be the warm up round for anyone interested. The round will be played at Red Hawk Golf Club near Tawas, Mi.. As in the previous year, all participants names are thrown into a hat and the teams drawn randomly for an all out scramble blitz. If you are interested in the warm up round please contact me as soon as possible. Payment (Approx. $50 including cart) for this round will be the responsibility of each participant
