

Yoot Shoot Post

August 2000
Volume 2, Issue 2

Inside this Issue

- 1 Thunderbay fall color
- 1 Elk Ridge prepares Hogs
- 1 Red Hawk

* Please check our website : www.yootshoot.com for recent updates.... Yoot wear soon to come!

Yoot Productions
6749 Granger Dr.
Troy, Mi. 48098

Thunderbay will show its Peak fall color

Thunderbay Trees explode with fall color just in time for the Yoot Shoot

All reservations are in place, and Thunderbay is patiently awaiting the arrival of Yoots during the fall rut. With the expectation of 10 groups (40 Yoots) the resort will host the largest number of Yoots to gather in North America in one location. Just a reminder that the final balance of $115 is due by Sept. 15th. Please be SURE your deposit reaches Paul by that date.

An early morning sun shimmers upon a Thunderbay greenside pond

If anyone is interested, Thunderbay has Luxury Suites available to house non-golfing Yoots. These are available for $137/nt. Call for reservations 800-729-9375.

Elk Ridge Prepares the Hogs for the Yoot

Simple little par 5-around a bend, through the trees and over water

Elk Ridge has reportedly commissioned the slaughter of 14 hogs to supply Yoots with ample Honey Baked ham sandwiches to quench our voracious appetites. Tee times starting at 11:00am will be a perfect opportunity to down a few hog backstraps while swilling lager.

Hitting over the marsh on the left offers an easy approach to the #1 handicap

Red Hawk Anyone?

Just a reminder that if you plan on playing the Friday round at Red Hawk (www.redhawkgolf.net) you must confirm with Paul (pgomez@fec-usa.com) by August 30th as a final count must be turned in. (22) people have responded so far!