Final Preparations Are Underway!

Yoot headquarters has been abuzz in activities these past few weeks as we wind down to the 6 week mark before the 2008 Yoot Shoot! Our Chief of Beef Jerky Procurement has returned from his fact finding mission in China and found an "alternative" meat source that we will be provided this year as part of our jerky cost cutting program. It is said to have a slight hint of Purina Dog Chow, but that diminishes after the first bite... YUM! I can't wait!

Undercover Yoot "sneaking" in a practice round @ Garland

A small group of Yoots will visit Garland near the end of August to finalize every detail and also get a glimpse of the courses we will play. (I'm sure they will not take any notes so don't worry too much that they will have a competitive advantage!)

As you may remember, we will be going off each day using regular tee times instead of a shotgun start. (We chose to have LATER tee times this year, so we don't have to wake up so early on Saturday morning and golf in cold dew!) The Friday group tee times will soon be available on the Yoot website. The tee times will start at 11am each day. If you would like to request a later tee time for Friday's round, please let me know as soon as possible by responding to the email this was sent from or emailing ceo@yootshoot.com. The tee times for Saturdays round will be according to the teams score from the Friday round and will be posted after the Friday round. The team with the highest score will tee off first, while the team with the lowest score will tee off last. This should provide some excitement and add a "little" pressure to those teams coming in seeking to drink from the Yoot Cup while all their fellow Yoots gaze upon them in amazement on the 18th green (under very quiet conditions, I'm sure)...Oh the humanity!

What The Hell Is That On Your Head??!!

This year, the Friday round of the Yoot Shoot will feature "Crazy Hat Day". Prizes will be awarded to the Yoot's that don the goofiest hat while golfing. So get your craziest hat, pull it across your pink soft thinking sphere and proceed to knock your ball down the fairway!!! I'll bet the cart girl(s) will be REAL impressed with your new look as well as your Yoot Brethren!!!
