The Yoot Post

On the tee since 1998: For the betterment of the game...if that's what you call it.

Run for Da Hills!

Fresh off another great year of the Golf Channels hit series The Big Break X: Michigan, Boyne Highlands courses were featured showing the world what Northern Michigan golf is all about. Many of the competitions took place on The Arthur Hills course, which we will play as part of the 2010 Yoot Shoot on Saturday Sept. 25th. A spectacular layout, reminiscent of the towering pines in the Sand Hill area of North Carolina, the course winds its way through the Boyne Highlands Valley before climbing to the mountain summit of hole #13 (shown below) providing a grand view of the valley below. Tempting you to wail a drive of a lifetime, be careful as unforeseen trouble lurks left and right. Anything left on this hole, tumbles all the way into the #12 rough or fairway with virtually no shot but to hit back into the #13 fairway. Anything right and...well... you can tell from the picture below...you better have your chainsaw club in your bag. This course will provide a dramatic setting for our final round of the 2010 Yoot Shoot.

Hole #13 Par 5 – Arthur Hills Course – A Grand View

YOOT FACTS!

- Last year, Mary Riley became the first women to win the Super Closest to the Pin. She was also on the team – The Firm – who took the lowest score for a co-ed team @ 12 under.
- The Drunk Drivers had the most recorded Eagles for the 2009 Yoot Shoot – 3
- In 2009, The Bean Counters had the most holes played under par. (19). Unfortunately, they also had 3 bogeys.
- On the Mountain Ridge course last year, 27 persons hit the Feast or Famine green setting a record as the most people to win at feast or famine. The lowest number is 4 in 2006 on The Bear at The Grand Traverse Resort.
- This will be the 2nd time Boyne Highlands Resort has hosted the Yoot Shoot. The first time around, the first round was the first time the Yoot Shoot had a complete wash-out and it was contested using only one round.
- The Yoot Shoot will be played in September for only the 3rd time.
