The Yoot Post

On the tee since 1998: For the betterment of the game...if that's what you call it.

Less than 60 Days and Counting!!

The thermometer outside reads a humid 89 degrees and with under 60 days until the start of the 2010 Yoot Shoot it hard to believe that frost will provide a shiny white coat on the nighttime grass in about the same time frame. As the leaves begin their annual color display, sixty Great Northern Michigan Yoot Shooters will begin their annual migration to the Michigan North.

Bay Harbor hosts the opening round on Friday September 24th with the championship round following on Saturday @ the Arthur Hills Course at Boyne Highlands. Tee times will be assigned for the Bay Harbor round, and will be announced in the next Yoot Post. Saturdays round will start with a 10am shotgun start for all groups (Saturday starting hole numbers will also be listed in the next Yoot Post). So stayed tuned for Septembers Yoot Post!

YOOT FACTS!

- “Louie G & the Inlaws” and “Last Call” were the first teams in Yoot Shoot history to be disqualified for playing from the wrong tee-boxes in 2009.
- “Louie G” is the first Yoot Board member ever disqualified from competition...a twenty year veteran and he “forgot”...old age is a bitch.
- Since 1998, the Yoot Scorecard has been used to remind all participants which talent holes and tees to play from... making it impossible almost impossible to play from the wrong tees.
- In 2000 at Thunder bay Resort, after a two hour snow delay, the pro shop handed out blankets to all participants who wanted them. The blankets came from their sleighs which are used during the winter months for elk viewing sleigh rides. 1-2 inches of snow had fallen overnight before the last round.
- The 2010 Yootshoot will feature 12 first timers or “yookies” as they’re known to the Yoot congregation. Good Luck and some good advice ...read the scorecard
